Dear Parents and Carers,

The children loved dressing up for St George's Day on Tuesday - they came as dragons, kings and queens, knights and soldier or in red and white in celebration of England's national day, They made shields and pretended to slay the dragon. For snack, the children loved the scones with jam and cream.

Next Week

PSED (Personal, Social & Emotional Development):

We shall be talking to the children about staying safe around water as part of our Under the sea theme.

CL (Communication & Language):

The Ducklings will be practising listening and responding to each other by teachers creating small group activities to facilitate this.

PD (Physical Development):

Fine motor - Octopus scissor cutting.

Gross motor - Walking the plank: we will be working on balancing skills over the building tray filled with water by walking along a narrow plank.

Art focus - Process art, wave picture. The children will recreate Katsushika Hokusai's "Great Wave" painting using watercolours and other materials to enhance their work. This will be their April art piece for their art books.

Self-help skill - Helping each other to undo buttons on smocks and zips on jackets. We will continue to help the children develop their independence skills, especially for those who will be Ducks in September.

Snack - pears, melon, toast, bananas, carrots.
